The Old School is situated in the unspoilt village of Friston on Suffolk's heritage coast.

We have converted The Old School into our home and are now able to offer twin and double rooms with ensuite facilities.

Guests will be able to relax in the peaceful location and enjoy lovely rural views.

The rooms are comfortably furnished. Tea and coffee making facilities and a television are provided in each room.

The Old School provides an ideal base to enjoy the many attractions in the area.

Aldeburgh is 3 miles away and offers sailing on the river Alde, an excellent 18-hole golf course, tennis courts and fishing from the beach.

For those who prefer a less active break, there are pleasant shops at both Aldeburgh and Snape, particularly for those who are interested in antiques.

A fifteen-minute drive will take you to the R.S.P.B. reserve at Minsmere. At the end of a relaxing day, visitors will have an excellent choice of restaurants and pubs.
